LENOX

WAM Theatre Teen Ensemble to perform Sunday, May 26

LENOX – WAM Theatre announces the upcoming performance of “What We Know and What We Don’t; Spilling the Tea on Life, Portals and Possibilities” on Sunday, May 26 at 1 p.m. in historic Church on the Hill Cemetery.

It consists of a series of short performances created by WAM’s acclaimed Teen Ensemble. “The piece offers a glimpse into the brilliant, fantastical, and curious minds of six young artists as they take stock of this unique moment in their lives and the world, and ponder what comes next,” explains Maizy Broderick

Scarpa, WAM’s Director of Community Engagement who co-facilitates Teen Ensemble.

The Church on the Hill is a hilly, grassy location with paved pathways. Wheelchair accessible bathrooms are available in the church.

RSVPs are appreciated by calling or texting 413-300-1413 or emailing maizy@wamtheatre.com. In case of rain, people should check their email if they RSVP, WAM’s Theatre’s Instagram or by visiting www.wamtheatre.com/teen-ensemble/.

GOSHEN

Highland Ambulance EMS, Inc. marks 20th anniversary

GOSHEN – Highland Ambulance EMS, Inc. reaches a milestone of 20 years for providing medically advanced emergency services to the towns of Ashfield, Chesterfield, Cummington, Goshen, Plainfield and Williamsburg.

To mark their 20th Anniversary, Highland Ambulance EMS will thank the community for their ongoing support by hosting a Community Appreciation Day on Saturday, June 22 on their facility grounds located at 12 Williams Drive from 11a.m.-5 p.m.

Mike Rock, Managing Director, says “Highland Ambulance has been committed to excellence in EMS, innovation, and patient care. The 20th Anniversary recognizes a momentous journey of growth and success, but our greatest accomplishments are the lives saved, health restored and families comforted by the care we have been blessed to provide.”

Special acknowledgements will take place at 12:30 p.m. and include a segment of dedications, plaque unveilings, community member recognitions and sharing the vision for the future of Highland Ambulance EMS.

Event attendees will have the opportunity to meet the EMS staff, tour the new facility and learn more about the level of advanced medical emergency services the Highland Ambulance EMS provides. Lunch and refreshments will be available. The event is sponsored by the generosity of local businesses.

Highland Ambulance EMS, Inc is a non-profit corporation and operates on a limited annual budget funded by the six towns they serve, in addition to the generous donations from community members.
