The Stolen Beam series hosted by Jones Library

AMHERST— The Stolen Beam Series is a place to learn why some people are talking about reparations for African Americans. A 5-session class, will be held via Zoom this fall, sponsored by the Jones Library. The series was developed by members of the Reparations Committee of the Jewish Community of Amherst and will be co-facilitated by members of that committee.

The goal of the series is educational engagement with a narrative of US racial history that is different from what many of us learned in our schooling. The class will focus on the legacy of African enslavement, what was stolen, what may be owed, and historical examples of reparations. The class offers an opportunity, especially for those relatively new to the topic, to study and reflect on writings of prominent thought leaders on the topic of reparations for African Americans as a path to restorative justice. Each class offers readings as well as videos or audio recordings. Suggested study questions are included for each class. Please note: This is not a lecture format. We bring the hope and expectation that all participants will prepare the reading and/or viewing of the assigned materials for each session and come prepared for thoughtful discussion.

The class meets on Zoom for five Thursdays this fall: Oct. 31, Nov. 7, 14, 21 and Dec. 5 from 7:30 to 8:50 p.m. Registration indicates the intent to attend and participate in all five sessions. There is no charge for this program. Most reading/video materials will be provided via the internet. Some of the materials may be available at the library.

Online registration closes at noon on Tuesday, Oct. 22. Find registration information at www.joneslibrary.org/stolenbeam. Please contact Janet Ryan at ryanj@joneslibrary.org with any questions.
