Forever in a Moment to hold third annual toy drive

By Marcelo Gusmao Staff Writer mgusmao@turley.com

PALMER – Samantha Jaremczuk and her nine-year-old son, Zeke, have been collecting toys to donate to Baystate Children's Hospital since Zeke was diagnosed with leukemia.

Zeke has finished active treatment as of April, though he still has monthly visits to the oncology clinic. Jaremczuk said that according to blood work taken as recently as this week, "all of his counts look great, and he's doing well."

Jaremczuk said her son was inspired to hold a toy drive to benefit the children on the floor. She said that he was inspired by the Child Life team that would interact with him while he was in treatment.

"When you're in the hospital with a child, they have a team called Child Life to play games and interact with them," Jaremczuk said. "We became really close with the team and wanted to donate toys to the floor for other children who will be there, and to help
