The Snow Queen herself even spoke about the event, expressing excitement meeting all the children and their families.

"It was so wonderful to see everyone and it was so much fun to see all the little kids dressed up as me and Anna," she said. "It was so nice of them (the library) to invite us to come out and see all the little kids. It's so much fun coming out and seeing everyone and getting to sing 'Let it Go' and dance together and read a story. And I especially love getting hugs from everyone because I love warm hugs."

In attendance as well was the Royal Assistant Josefine, who shared this.

"We wanted to go to the Wilbraham library today to spread our company to all little boys and girls so they can feel the magic of meeting their favorite princess. From what I had done with the library they seemed considerate and easy to work with," she said.

Parent Janeen Laporte was in attendance with her daughter, Emma, and spoke about the event along with other events being held at the library.

"They're (The library's events) free and the children get to get together with all of their friends," Laporte said.

It was a wonderful day for children to be able to spend a day with their favorite fairytale character and do many fun activities with her.

The event was brought in part by Alyssa's Happily Ever Afters, located in Hopkinton. Since 2018, they have been providing character entertainment for children of all ages across Massachusetts.

They offer over 30 characters from princesses, fairies, mermaids, and superheroes.

"Our experience with the Wilbraham Library was wonderful! We loved speaking and collaborating with the library staff. They were welcoming and excited to connect with us! Not only the library, but the Wilbraham community was incredibly friendly and welcoming as well! It truly was such a pleasure and honor to work with the Wilbraham Library! We would love to work with them again and bring more magic to the community of Wilbraham!" Alyssa, the founder of Alyssa's Happily Ever Afters, said.

For the month of March for the library, upcoming children's events include a Dried Bean Mosaic event on March 8 where kids can make a mosaic out of various beans and seeds. Also, a Beary Special Storytime on March 31, for a fun day of arts and crafts with their teddy bears.

PUBLIC NOTICES

Wilbraham Conservation Commission LEGAL NOTICE

The Wilbraham Conservation Commission will hold a public hearing on Monday, March 10, 2025 at 6:00 PM on the Request for an Amended Order of Conditions filed by Mark Jurkowski under the Massachusetts Wetlands Protection Act and the Wilbraham Wetlands Bylaw. Mr. Jurkowski is under agreement with the owner, Kevin Schuhlen, to purchase 975V Stony Hill Rd. The Applicant revised the approved site plan from 2019 to reflect a different location of a single family home, septic system and associated grading. The revised plan keeps all proposed work outside the 100' Inner Riparian Zone as well as reduces Riverfront Area and wetland buffer zone impact. Further information relating to this application is on file with the Conservation Commission.
